SHERATON BALI KUTA RESORT CELEBRATES THE 3RD ANNIVERSARY OF FEAST MARKET BRUNCH WITH CELEBRITY CHEF DATO' CHEF WAN

BALI, INDONESIA – 26 SEPTEMBER 2016 – Sheraton Bali Kuta Resort had a great celebration at the 3rd year anniversary of the famous Feast Market Brunch, Kuta's only Sunday Brunch on 25th September 2016. The event was graced by a popular Malaysian celebrity chef, or better known as 'Chef Wan'. Themed "Sip, Savor and Shop," the weekly brunch event is Kuta's only market brunch featuring a great spread prepared by the resort's talented culinary team at Feast restaurant. This weekly affair has been revolutionizing Bali brunches by including market shopping at the brunch. Aside from the free groceries included, guests can also purchase premium items such as cheeses and cold cuts, kitchenware and even fresh seafood!

"Time flies; it has been a 3 years journey so far! Our ever evolving Market Brunch with an open-air market of delicious fare is now new and improved with premium food items, kitchenware, handmade crafts and services from local farmers, artisans and vendors," explained Dario Orsini, General Manager of Sheraton Bali Kuta Resort. "We were thrilled to have Chef Wan from Malaysia to showcase his creations at Sheraton Bali Kuta Resort and to share this special moment of the 3rd anniversary celebration along with our guests."

"Sip, Savor and Shop" is the ideal way for the whole family to gather and enjoy a beautiful, leisurely Kuta-style Sunday afternoon in an open-air market setting at this resort in Kuta. In addition to the variety of food selections and to-go items, the easy-going environment includes live DJ entertainment, a children's play area with several fun activities, and dog care. After a hearty brunch, guests can extend their afternoon by relaxing at the beach, splashing in the resort's pool, or shopping and catching a movie at the mall next door.

No stranger in the culinary scape, Dato Chef Wan or better known as Chef Wan was proud to showcase Malaysian treasures at the Sunday Market Brunch. His career may have started as an accountant, but quickly traded the corporate world for a career in the kitchen. With more than 20 years of experience in the industry and is known for his flamboyant sense of style. His talents range from chef, actor to TV host, author and publisher – with 12 cookbooks published and more on the way. He was also appointment as 'Culinary Ambassador' by Tourism Malaysia in November 2010.

Open each Sunday from 12 noon to 3 pm, Market Brunch at Feast showcases a variety of live stations emphasizing on authentic global cuisine as well as local tapas and small bites so guests can sample and savor a wide range of comfort food from Bali and beyond. The dynamic menu at Feast Restaurant, Kuta Bali changes each week based on the seasonal availability of local ingredients. Guests also have the option of sipping limitless Champagne, wines, or home-crafted fruit and tea inspired beverages. In addition, Market Brunch features retail stalls that offer fresh produce, premium groceries, and kitchenware to go – perfect for guests who want to get a head start for the week ahead!
